Who are we?

The Executive Next Practices Forum (ENP) is a unique organization comprised of mid to large market C-level, top functional leaders and trusted advisors (Board members, CEO, CFO, HR, CMO, COO, CIO). This ongoing collaboration, conducted in a non-traditional format, is focused on the latest “next practice” leadership and business strategies. Conducted in major corporate and academic “safe havens”, the sessions are non-solicitation and formatted to deliver fresh, innovative and relevant approaches to a leaders and their executive teams. All registrations are subject to review and qualification.
