

EXECUTIVE NEXT PRACTICES FORUM
Connect · Collaborate · Innovate

Connect

Collaborate

Innovate

Adaptive Strategy, Great Teams, Execution Excellence

Special Joint Forum of the Executive Next Practices Institute and OCTANE

February 6, 2015

8:30am-10:30 Registration and networking 7:30am-8:30am

Examine the critical elements to 2015 success in the marketplace - lead by top thought leaders:

Over 150 companies in 35 verticals attending

- ▶ How to adapt and adjust your strategy – proactively - to build a stronger value proposition
- ▶ Getting the “right” team players focused on the right results
- ▶ Mobilizing all stakeholders for consistent and sustained execution

This highly interactive event is specifically designed for all members of your executive team - over 25 different industry sectors will be represented.

David Meltzer

Reginald Gilyard

James Corbett

Current confirmed speakers:

David Meltzer, CEO Sports 1 Marketing

Dean Reginald H. Gilyard, Dean of the Argyros School of Business and Economics, Chapman University

James M. Corbett, President, Chief Executive Officer, AlphaTec

Register here: www.enpinstitute.com/events

Join as an annual member- save over $1050 over door rates: www.enpinstitute.com/membership

Who are we?

The Executive Next Practices Forum (ENP) is a unique organization comprised of mid to large market C-level, top functional leaders and trusted advisors (Board members, CEO, CFO, HR, CMO, COO, CIO). This ongoing collaboration, conducted in a non-traditional format, is focused on the latest “next practice” leadership and business strategies. Conducted in major corporate and academic “safe havens”, the sessions are non-solicitation and formatted to deliver fresh, innovative and relevant approaches to a leaders and their executive teams. All registrations are subject to review and qualification.

